If there are any other additions or corrections to be made, please let Patti Speelmon know @ the office & they will be included in the next issue of the "Garden Gate".

Home Horticulture Classes:

Chris McIntosh has done loads of work getting advertising lined up for all MG projects, not the least being the Home Hort series for spring & fall. She has contacted many publications in the area & made info flyers to post in stores & garden centers for 6th spring classes. Kristin-at the extension office-will also put the list of classes on the U.I. website. The class evaluation form now has the added question "How did you hear about this class?" We are hoping for a great turnout for all the classes-just give the office a call if you haven't signed up yet.

The committee will be working on the fall series soon; if you have an interest in a particular subject please contact Don Childress (committee chair) @ dwc1rsc@televar.com or call the extension office @ 263-8511. Any input will be greatly appreciated.

Master Gardeners Helping Each Other:

Know anyone who needs a hand with something? We are about helping in the community, but we are also about helping each other. If you know of any master gardener needing any assistance with chores, let us know. Contact Bob Wilson @ the extension office & he will send out e-mails to the membership. Let's show each other that we care.

Along this line - Linda Kirchmann has had someone contact her regarding yard clean-up. This person can pay minimum wage & is happy to hire teens. The property is in the Sagle area, off of Lakeshore Drive. If you know of anyone who could use a job, please call Linda @ 263-5727 for more information.

Yard Exchanges:

Are you interested in seeing other M.G. gardens? We are all so different & each of us has great ideas for our gardens. We can share our ideas & learn tricks from each other. Linda Kirchmann (bkpkr linda@aol.com) & Jane Roach (jane@roach.net) will organize a "yard exchange" visit; they want to know who is interested & what time of year is best for your garden. Please contact these one of ladies to get your garden on the list!

Garden Tour:

Penny Barton has scheduled a meeting April 12th from 9-12 to be held @ the extension office to organize the summer garden tour. If you have any interest or input to share please contact Penny or the committee members: Blaine Harvey, Shirley Barksdale, Jane Roach, Gail Swan & Chris McIntosh (will do the advertising).

Advanced Master Gardener Classes:

This class will be on "Plant Identification". Classes will be held @ the extension office, beginning May 16/17 for 3 hours. Both classes are full. Classes will run for 7 weeks and are open to anyone interested with a limit of 15 students per class. A hand lens will be required.

The fee (which includes the text) will be $60 or $45 if you don't need to purchase a lens.

Notes:

The Plant Clinic started May 1st; there are calendars available now @ the extension office for signing up for your hours. 9 hours are required of each active MG member. No extra hours are required for those taking the advanced class. The hours this year are from 9-12 although you may stay & finish projects you are working on after 12 if you wish. Those hours can be counted toward your total. There will generally be two MG's scheduled to be in the clinic each Tuesday & Thursday. Hours can also be scheduled on Saturdays @ the Farmers Market. Check with Bob @ the office for this arrangement.

Jane Roach (class of 2006) staffed the plant clinic alone on the opening day. It was a very busy day with lots of items already there, lots of walk-ins & lots of phone calls. Jane maintained her composure throughout her day & was able to deal with all this on her own. A big Thank You to Jane for being there!!!

There are changes in the plant clinic client form; all client info is now on the front of the form with all the MG info on the back. This allows the front of the form to be copied and sent to the client if need be.

Also, jot down any subject that the plant clinic needs more info on; we have money to purchase new books for the clinic and many need replacing or updating. If you know of a specific book and/or website-write it down on the sheet posted in the Plant Clinic.

Remember to water the planting areas & gardens

Following are the calendars for May & June

Please sign up for your hours & fill the spaces so we don't have this situation again.

UI BCMG Website:

We need our own domain name-any suggestions? Bob says it looks easy to set up & Susan Daffron will maintain it once it's done. Chris McIntosh will be our contact with Susan, so if you want something on the website, contact Chris. Chris & Penny will discuss what to put on the website initially.

Garden Tour:

We need more suggestions for gardens to tour. Ann Warwick will contact the Sandpoint Garden Club for ideas. Contact Penny Barton, chair, or any committee member: Harvey Blaine, Shirley Barksdale, Jane Roach, or Gail Swan with any ideas or suggestions. The tour will be held July 1st.

Bonner County Fair Booth:

The theme this year is "All American". We have people who have volunteered to be on the committee, but we still need a chairperson. Step right up for this fun filled experience!!! Call Bob, Penny, or any board member to let them know you want the job.

Plant Sale/Garage Sale:

This project did so well last year-Janae Dale & Pat Moss have volunteered to co-chair again this year. Save all your unwanted items and any extra plants you may have for this sale. We will have a "drop-off" place as time draws near for the sale.

Jail Garden: The committee met with Bob Gardener (@ the Jail) regarding the garden. It will feed the inmates & also donate to the food bank. The garden area is very large. Bob is requesting suggestions on garden books to purchase. There will be vegetables & flowers. So far, the committee helping on this project is Penny B., Joyce L., Jane D., & Ann K. Anyone wishing to help, contact Penny.

Healing Garden:

Valle Novak is requesting help from any interested master gardener for spring work in the "Healing Garden" starting the beginning of April. Valle will be there in the am on Thursdays & Fridays. She will be happy to go over what needs to be done with you if you need to work another day of the week. This is a big job and Valle shoulders most of the responsibility for it. It would be really great to have a group of us to show up and help her out. The Garden is such a wonderful addition to the hospital grounds; let's help Valle keep it that way.

Cat Sanctuary:

Valle is also requesting help with a project @ the "Cat Sanctuary" on Blacktail Road. There will be a planting project of trees & shrubs-to be done sometime in May (when the weather is warmer & the snow is gone). Contact Valle Novak @ 265-4688.

Bonner County Fair-August:

We need a chair person or co-chairs to head up the booth decorating for the fair this year. Anyone interested in this fun filled event please contact Pres. Penny Barton @ onecent@gotsky.com or 265-9733.

Fly Fishing:

Don Childress-"Fly Fisherman Extraordinaire" has consented to giving a class on his passion if there is enough interest expressed. Joyce Lane will help coordinate this class. If you have an interest, please contact Don @ dwclrsc@televar.com or Joyce @ jlane@coldreams.com. This will include both classroom and practical classes.

Bill Tedesco's Blueberry Farm:

We have been invited to Bill's blueberry farm for information/demonstration on growing & pruning blueberries. Date: Friday, May 18th. Meet @ Klondikes (in Leclede) @ 9am. If you wish to carpool, meet @ the extension office @ 8:30. Contact Bob Wilson @ 263-8511 for further info.

Plant-a-Row (PAR):

PAR has begun. New flyers are available from Ann Warwick. There is a meeting @ the Library May 10th @ 7pm. Alice Wallace will represent the food bank. She is already receiving calls for more info on PAR. Ann Keiser & Ann Warwick will represent U.I. BCMG's @ the Library meeting.

The Learning Garden/Extension office Landscaping:

A work party was held on April 24th. Jim Seyfert & his wife constructed and donated a stand for hanging tomato plants. Thanks so much to the Seyferts! Thanks also to Ann Keiser, Jane Roach, Linda Kirchmann, & Jim for participating in the workday. Ann has started a bunch of plants from seed at home and will donate them to the Learning Garden. Don Childress donated 10 tires for planting potatoes (or whatever else we want). Don has lots more tires if anyone would like some-Thanks Don! Ann K delivered the straw bales. They need to soak for 2 weeks before planting. Timers were suggested for watering. Another work day was just held on May 7th. A big thanks to those who participated. The garden is looking really great! Ann suggested that any MG who is able lend a planted patio pot for the front steps of the office for the summer. At the end of summer, they may be taken back for use next year. Any plants, any pots, a little creativity & individuality for the extension office.

IDAHO STONE

MARGE CARLSON, MASTER GARDENER CLASS OF 2003

By Chris McIntosh

Marge lived in Southern California until she was 60 years old and gardening is something she just did. Her grandparents and parents always had a garden somewhere on their property--big or little. She found it difficult in Idaho to grow the right things at the right time. She laments, "I had terrible clay soil and lots of deer to help themselves to what ever. I was frustrated after a couple of years and read about MG and so I did a little research and signed up for the program. I learned more than I ever expected. I also found that some people could grow certain things 3 miles from me and mine would die. I have tried a lot of ideas and experimented with various methods. You know you never get it perfect and every year I do a little something different, but that's the fun."

Garden Gate is the magazine she likes the best because it has so many ideas and lay outs. Sunset is another favorite with recipes for the veggies you grow. Marge says, "I like Country Gardens and find myself thumbing through them often. I get some great ideas from other gardens and a lot of inspiration from visiting garden shows and large public gardens."

Her biggest challenge after fencing off the deer is the horrible clay soil and trying to lengthen the growing season. She has done her own starts, but her cats find them very tasty, so she now buys from the nursery--that's their business and expertise! Buying starts has helped Marge have a longer and more successful season.

Marge writes, "My biggest success is nothing compared to the many other Master Gardeners, but my Little English Garden next to our house is my favorite. I had to bring in tons of topsoil and my husband built a fence and I laid out the pattern of the garden. Using lots of fertilizer and the rototiller, I finally got the soil I needed. Then I planned the paths and covered them with bark and brought up lots of rocks to line the paths. I'm still bringing them up a little at a time. This is a small garden and I love it. I have a cutting garden in the back so I don't cut the flowers near the house."
